Bringing blueprints to life

Like a wizard conjuring up the seemingly impossible, Arun Nalpat and his team have virtually breathed life into stone and mortar creating a masterpiece worthy of praise.

We start with the most visually compelling element: the lobby. Tropical and quintessentially native, the indoor water body transports you to an oasis of tranquillity.

The harmonious interaction of space, materials and form creates a soothing and relaxed environment. You'll feel completely at home in a place that embraces you in its serenity, one that whispers with an unmistakable imprint of grace and timelessness. Glassy floors and minimal furnishing create a tranquil, Zen-like atmosphere. The natural stone surfaces provide a soothing welcome for you and your guests.

Pinnacle of Living

Cross the threshold into any of the stunning apartments and only then will you fully appreciate the true meaning of luxurious living. Step out of the elevator and the first sight that greets you is an exquisitely crafted art installation placed strategically in the recessed alcove. The striking interiors harmonize perfectly with an impressive list of features, finishes and rich materials that announce to the world that you have arrived.

The living and family lounge area speaks volumes about comfort, of relaxed elegance that allows you to bask in the luxuriousness that you are surrounded in.

Stepping into your apartment for the first time is like a fairy tale coming true. An elegant solid wood door with designer shutters teases you and prepares you for the splendor that lies ahead. Beautifully textured walls combined with impeccably tasteful flooring makes the 'luxury' experience complete.

Glide along the ivory-hued marble floor that runs across the living and dining areas and leads into the landscaped terrace through floor-to-ceiling glass French doors. The dining space wall boasts of a natural stone clad look that emanates class and luxury.

The gracefully designed residences are precisely calibrated to take advantage of everything that modern city life has to offer. The kitchen too has not been left wanting. Graced with imported cabinetry, gleaming granite and modern designer fittings, this appliance-rich, semi-open kitchen with a breakfast corner is a dream for the modern Indian woman.

The stunning landscaped terrace takes luxurious living to another level. Be it the wooden deck flooring, the sunken slabs for growing plants or the tropical water bodies, everything speaks one word: luxury.

The bathrooms transport you into a world of comfort and serenity. Marble floors, chromium-plated fittings and above-counter designer basins transport you into a spa-like atmosphere. Bathrooms boast of sunken bathtubs with designer finishes and showerheads that replicate actual rain showers to lull you into a state of blissful enchantment.

Finally, solid wood bedroom doors with jamb lining frames and designer shutters invite you into your most private space. Luxurious marble graces the floor beneath your feet and the walls are swathed in colours that soothe your senses.
