AN INTRODUCTION TO RR PROJECTS

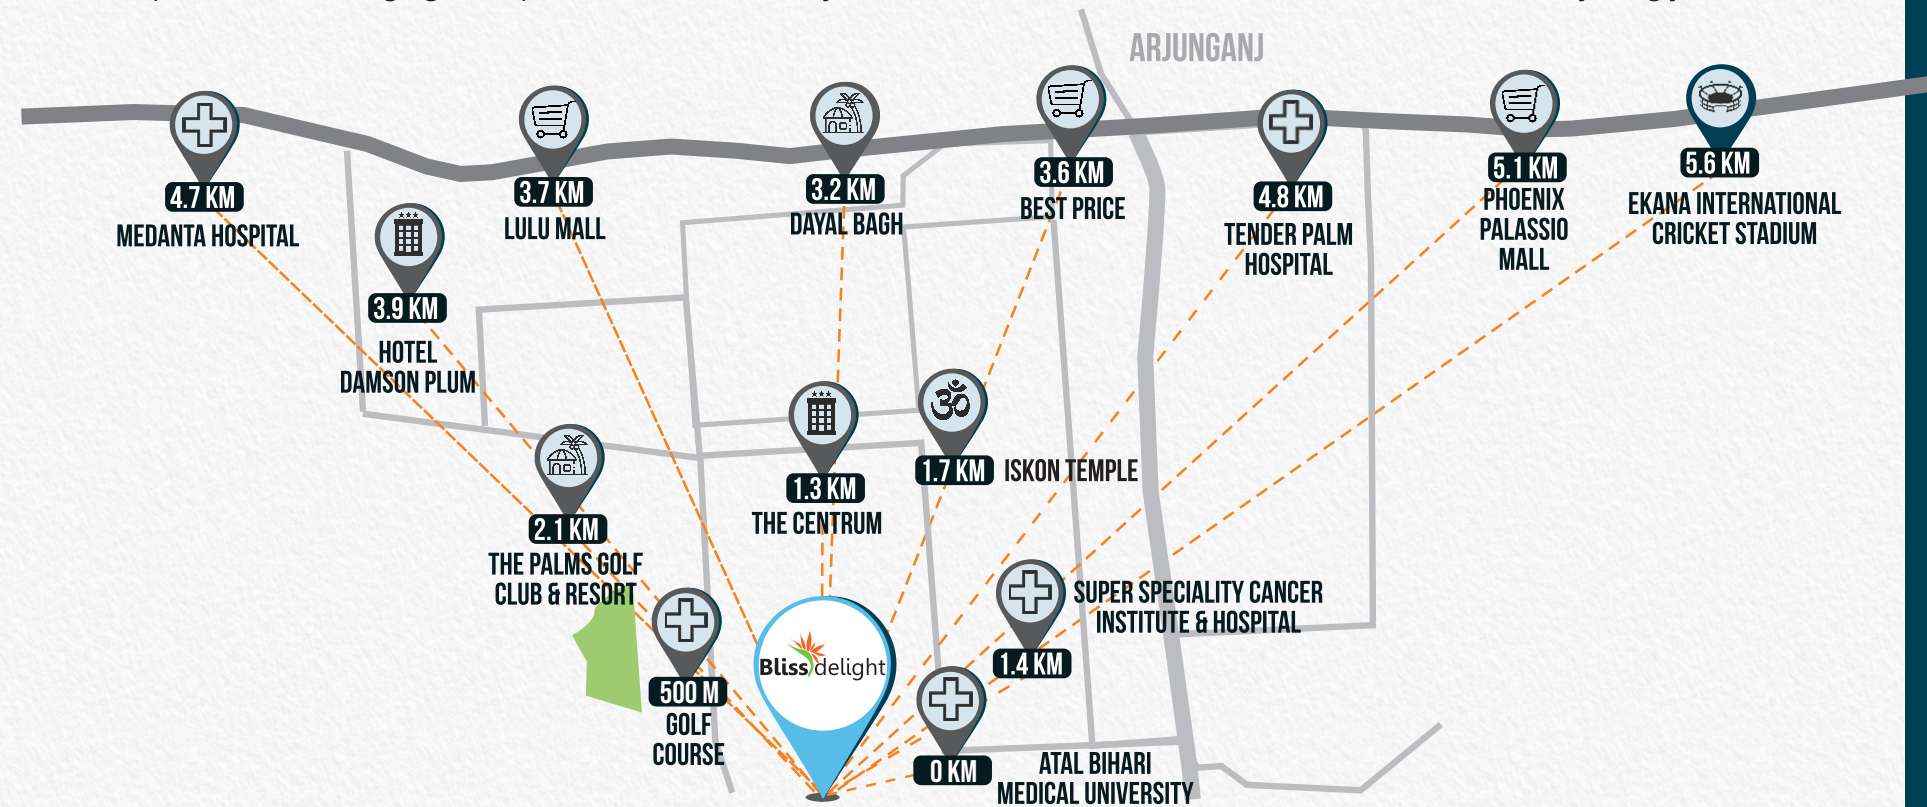

Formerly known as the R.R. Projects have been the pioneers in the field of construction and are one of the leading real estate companies of Lucknow.

The legacy of the group companies can be traced through generations of the Agarwal family. Right from the years of being in the coal and brick kiln business, to the commercial and residential constructions businesses, and the more recent hospitality projects, the Agarwal family has always excelled in all their ventures.

Today, having completed a broad base of projects, and with several more in the pipeline, RR. Projects is fast changing the skyline of Lucknow. The sole belief of the company is to provide ultra modern and aesthetically designed housing and commercial complexes at reasonable and affordable cost.
