

Your own island of tranquility

Strategic Location

Greenery... Take in the freshness of nature, a deep breath that's rich, pure and rejuvenating

Located in Whitefield, one of Bangalore's fastest growing and sought after high tech corridors, Sohum ISIRI offers close proximity to leading IT operations such as Dell, TCS, Intel, SAP and HCL, and is just walking distance from the ITPL Tech Park. If you are an IT professional associated with one of these or the many more organizations around, you could just walk to work - no more pollution or traffic jams!

The project offers excellent amenities - covered car parking, 24-hour water supply, power back up and security.

Of course you have access to all facilities that you would expect for quality living with Sohum ISIRI offering proximity to renowned hospitals, reputed educational institutions, shopping and entertainment areas and more... completing your quest for a dream home.

Sohum Developers is a builder and developer of exquisite residential properties that reflect the finest in design and construction. We create homes that are recognized for their quality and elegance incorporating the best - talent, design and materials. Our design focuses on retaining and sustaining natural elements and every Sohum home is surrounded by abundant greenery, well lit with natural light and ventilation.

Our vision is to offer homes that are truly your precious, personal spaces, going beyond the regular to offer lasting comfort and tranquility. Our inspiration comes from the very basic activity of all living forms - breathing. In fact, Sohum is a culmination of two words and actions - Inhalation (Sooo) and Exhalation (Huum), which drives our basic philosophy.

The Sohum Advantage
