WHO ARE WE

A Real Estate Company that is spearheaded by a young team with more than 80 man-years of real estate experience. We at NOVA are aware that an investment in real estate is a substantial investment in any individual's life. The reason why, it has to be the safest, most durable and should have the highest happiness quotient. Offering such an experience is not something that each one of us has learnt or mastered overnight. It's decades of hard work and expertise that our team has garnered at varied organisations to deliver this fulfilment. Some learnt by doing it right. And some learnt by mistakes. To ensure that we deliver our projects with the utmost best quality, we follow well-established best construction practices. But then again, all of what we have said could be just promise on paper if we don't deliver. Fortunately, we have a chance to make our actions speak. And that's the real NOVA promise.
