WHERE THE ORDINARY ENDS, AND THE INFINITE BEGINS

In a world of boundaries and limitations, Thane Infinity stands as an invitation to something more profound. Here, spaces breathe with possibility. Your journey doesn't end at your front door, it begins there, stretching infinitely into a life without full stops, without compromise, without "someday."

Only Now. Only Next. Only Infinite.

A MASTERPIECE THAT EXCEEDS EXPECTATIONS, FOREVER

Rising with quiet confidence against the Thane Skyline, Thane Infinity speaks the language of timeless elegance. With clean lines and balanced proportions, it stands tall with presence – one that doesn't demand attention but deserves it, naturally.

It's where living becomes legacy.

INFINITY ISN'T JUST A FEELING, IT'S ON THE MAP

The city's future flows right past your doorstep.

Twin Tube Tunnel (Thane–Borivali)
A new twin-tube tunnel under Sanjay Gandhi National Park (SGNP) will shorten the distance between Thane and Borivali by 12 km. It will reduce travel time from 1 hour to just 15–20 minutes.

Proposed Metro Line 10 (Gaimukh–Dahisar)
This line will improve connections between different metro routes. It is expected to reduce travel time by 30 to 45 minutes and lower road traffic by 30% to 35%.

Mumbai Metro Line 4A (Wadala-Gaimukh)
This 32.32 km metro line will run from Wadala to Kasarvadavali with 30 stations. It will connect to the Eastern Express Roadway, Central Railway, Mono Rail, and Metro Lines 2B, 5, and 6. Travel time will reduce by 50% to 75%.

Proposed Water Jetty (Gaimukh to Mira–Bhayandar and Vasai)
A water jetty service will reduce road traffic and offer a faster way to travel. It is part of a larger plan to boost water transport. Travel time will go down by 15 minutes.

Metro Line 5 (Thane–Bhiwandi–Kalyan)
This 24.90 km elevated metro line with 15 stations will run from Thane to Bhiwandi to Kalyan. It will link with Metro Line 4, the proposed Metro Line 12, and Central Railway. Travel time will reduce by 50% to 70%.

Proposed Coastal Road (Gaimukh via Kolshet Central Park to Bhiwandi–Kalyan Road)
This road will help move heavy container trucks away from Thane, easing traffic. Travel time is expected to reduce by 15 to 20 minutes.
